Havens, Munson (Secretary, Cleveland Chamber of Commerce)

April 1918

April 15th, 1918

Mr. Munson Havens,

Secretary, Cleveland Chamber of Commerce.

My dear Mr. Havens:

I have to thank you for your letter of April 12 giving me details as to the luncheon at which you have done me the honour to have me speak. I appreciate very highly your courtesy.

I am sending you two photographs for use.

The subject of my address will be "The Two English-speaking Democracies". I will endeavour to set forth the way in which the American Democracy came into being, and then the different process whereby the Democracy of the British Empire arose, laying particular stress upon the development of Canada, and closing by showing how the two democracies now standing side by side have been brought together again in defence of what is fundamentally the same ideal.

It is very kind of you to reserve me a room at the Statler Hotel. I rather think, however, that I shall be staying with a friend, but I will let you know in good time. With kind regards,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Mr. Hudson Reeves,

Secretary, The Cleveland Chamber of Commerce,

Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

I am directed by Sir Robert Falconer to send you under separate cover two photographs of himself for use in the newspapers with the request that you kindly return them to him after you have finished with them.

Yours sincerely,

President's Secretary.

April 23rd, 1918

Mr. Nuneon Havens,

The Cleveland Chamber of Commerce,

Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

I am directed by Sir Robert Falconer to write you and say that he will be the guest of Professor J. J. R. Macleod of Western Reserve University while he is to be in Cleveland for the purpose of addressing the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce. He expects to arrive in Cleveland Tuesday, April 30th, at 9:30, leaving Buffalo that same afternoon at 5:35 p.m.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.
